The glaring sun and extreme heat weren't enough keep a large crowd of Estill Countians, and even some out of towners, from gathering at the grand stands to watch 26 girls compete for crowns over the weekend.

The 2012 Estill County Fair kicked off Saturday night with the Miss Estill County and Miss Teen Estill County pageants.

Two Estill County girls were crowned after completing various portions of the pageants.

Morgan Wiseman, the daughter of Leah and Chris Wiseman of Irvine, was crowned the 2012 Miss Estill County.

She competed against five other girls from Estill and other counties in swimsuit, interview and formal wear competitions.

Miss Estill County is selected only from girls who are Estill County residents.

Wiseman received a crown and sash, $75 in cash prize money, a trophy and the opportunity to escort Little Mister and Little Miss Estill County at the Kentucky State Fair.

Monica Robertson was crowned Miss Estill County Fair Saturday evening. She is the daughter of Jeff and Sharon Robertson of Harrodsburg.

As Miss Estill County Fair, Robertson will compete in the Miss Kentucky County Fair Pageant.

Also awarded at the pageant were Miss Congeniality Kandyce Montgomery, first runner-up Kandyce Montgomery, and second runner-up Chelsea West.

Montgomery is the daughter of Pam Gross and Ronnie Montgomery of Danville.

West is the daughter of Dennis and Patricia West of Williamstown.

Kyra Cackling, the daughter of Debra Young of Irvine, took the Miss Estill County Teen Fair crown.

She competed against 19 other girls in formal wear and interview competitions.

Ashley Godsey was crowned Miss Estill County Teen Fair and will have the opportunity to compete in the Miss Kentucky Teen Fair Pageant in Louisville.

She is the daughter of Marshall and Kim Godsey of Windsor.

Also crowned were Miss Congeniality Sarah Barnes, the daughter of Jeff and Patty Barnes of Irvine, first runner-up Taya Cook, the daughter of Kevin and Tammy Cook of Albany, and second runner-up Carly Upchurch, the daughter of Adam and Patty Upchurch of Albany.

Monday evening's pageants went to a younger crowd. The grand stand was packed full to watch the crowning of Miss Estill County Preteen and Little Mister and Little Miss Estill County.

Miss Estill County Preteen is Kylee Riddle, the nine-year-old daughter of Deesha and Ernest Riddle.

First runner-up was Lindsey Isfort, the 12-year-old daughter of John and Donna Isfort. Second runner-up was Kyra Farthing, the eight-year-old daughter of April and Jimmy Farthing.

Little Mister Estill County is Steven Tyler Brewer, the seven-year-old son of Rhonda and Steve Brewer. Little Miss Estill County is Jenna Rae Benton, the seven-year-old daughter of Stephanie Benton and Patrick Bailey.

The Estill County Fair continues today with 4-H exhibits open for viewing at 3 p.m. and the Coca Cola Talent Contest beginning at 7 p.m.

The fair will conclude with an Independence Day Celebration and truck pull Saturday, June 7, beginning at 7 p.m.

Fate of fireworks show in question

By WHITNEY LEGGETT

CV&T News Editor

With temperatures reaching more than 100 degrees in the last week, county officials are taking steps to protect people from dangers of extreme heat conditions.

The lack of rain and high temperatures have forced many counties to issue burn bans.

Estill is one of more than 50 Kentucky counties that have issued burn bans in the last several weeks.

Judge-Executive Wallace Taylor and Estill County Fire Chief Derrick Muncie issued an official ban last week that prohibits lighting campfires and bonfires, open-pit cooking and the use of fireworks.

A burn ban is issued primarily to prevent wildfires. The U.S. Forestry Service reported more than 13,000 acres have burned in Kentucky already this year.

The burn ban in the county places into question the possibility of the annual Independence Day Celebration scheduled for Saturday at 7 p.m.

Fair Board President Teddy Hunt said no decision about whether the fireworks show will go on has been made.

"We're doing everything in our power to make it happen. But we can't control Mother Nature."

"We're doing everything in our power to make it happen," he said. "But we can't control Mother Nature."

Hunt said the fair board is working with local officials and the company hired to put the show on to make the best decision possible.

Taylor said the decision will most likely be made Friday.

Although there was some rain fall over the weekend, Taylor said he didn't think it was enough to retract the ban.

Ralden Mansfield, 32, of Stacy Lane, was arrested after attempting to rob a home on Sub Station Road with a loaded handgun Friday afternoon.

According the citation, Mansfield kicked in the front door of a home belonging to Danny and Kathy Parsons armed with a Smith and Wesson 357 magnum revolver.

Police received a call to respond to a fight in progress on Sub Station Road at 3 p.m.

Estill County Sheriff's Deputy Randy Farthing responded and was advised that a male subject had a gun to the head of another male.

Farthing could see Mansfield through the front door that had been kicked in and ordered him outside at gunpoint.

Farthing removed the loaded gun from Mansfield's waistband. After he was unarmed, he admitted to kicking in the door and assaulting Danny and Kathy Parsons.

Health Department sees budget cuts in new fiscal year

By KYLE WOOSLEY

The Estill County Health Department will not be replacing three positions due to recent cuts in the 2012-2013 fiscal budget.

Last year, the Estill County Health Department had a budget of $1,337,851. This year, the budget is only $1,279,508, which is down $58,343 from last year.

"We've not had to lay anybody off," said Tim Gould, public health administrator at the Estill County Health Department. "We're going down in staff three people from last year."

An accountant at the department left to pursue another job, which Gould said led to the decision to abolish the position all together.

A senior accounting clerk, who was retiring, was replaced by someone from the Health Access Nurturing Development Services (HANDS) program. A clerk with the department was recently moved to the HANDS program as well.

Gould said working with the program is a form of "cross training" causing the department to do some "lateral shifts."

"We've had some people leave and we just

Fiscal Court closes out 2011-2012 fiscal year

By WHITNEY LEGGETT
CV&T News Editor

The Estill County Fiscal Court met in special session last week to close out the 2011-2012 fiscal year.

The fiscal year ended June 30, meaning city and county government were required to approve balanced budgets and to close out the previous fiscal year.

The court held two public hearings for Local Government Economic Assistance (LGEA) funding and county road aid funding for the next fiscal year.

The budget included $37,550 in LGEA funding to be used for economic development, road utilities, drug enforcement education and various other areas of expense for the county.

The county road aid funding can also be used for a variety of expenses including licensing fees, paying employees, road repair, graveling, asphalt and maintenance or repairs made to vehicles.

The court allotted $1.45 million in county road aid funding for the 2012-2013 fiscal year.

“As I always say, everything in the budget is anticipated,” Estill County Judge-Executive Wallace Taylor said. “The road fund is more locked in and more secure than any other budget.”

The court voted to adopt the 2012-2013 budget.

Taylor told the court the budget, which had been approved at the state level and by the Department of Local Government, was $6,468,453.51.

The budget includes a 50-cent pay raise for county employees.

Taylor announced earlier this month the county had approved a health insurance policy with Bluegrass Family Health.

During previous readings of the budget,

Taylor told the court the pay raises would be determined by the health insurance policy and whether he could find a company with a reasonable bid.

County Treasurer Ann Rogers presented the May bank reconciliation statement and told the court as of May 31 all bills had been paid, making the 2011-2012 books current.

She also told the court the fiscal year could officially close out once she received the June bank statements as of July 2.

The court also approved final appropriation transfers and inter-fund transfers to make all accounts balanced at the end of the fiscal year.

The court approved a transfer of $192,000 from the general fund to the jail and a transfer of $3,000 from the general fund to the road fund.

Rogers told the court as of May 31, $695,800 had been transferred from the general fund to the jail in the 2011-2012 fiscal year.

These fund transfers are in addition to approximately $70,000 in general allotments, Taylor said.

In other business the court approved permission for CSEPP to advertise for bids for tower construction and mobile and portable radios.

Estill County Emergency Management/CSEPP Director Fred Rogers said there would be three separate bids advertised for different parts of the tower construction that would total approximately $350,000.

The bid advertised for the mobile and portable radios would be approximately $200,000, Rogers said.

The radios would be used for the fire department, rescue teams, police, sheriff’s office and constables.

The next regular meeting of the Estill County Fiscal Court is scheduled for July 16 at 6 p.m.

BAN

“I think it was only about a half inch in 24 hours,” he said. “We will continue to monitor conditions closely and take the ban and fire-works show decision on a day to day basis.”

Taylor said because a professional company will be doing the show, there may be some precautions that can be taken to continue with the event.

He said the ban and the extreme weather condition shouldn’t be taken lightly.

There is concern that drought and such extreme temperatures are hitting Kentucky so early in the summer months.

Taylor said these are not typically issues until August and September.

Taylor said he wants the people of Estill County to be responsible in times like these.

“People should check on their neighbors, especially if they are elderly,” he said.

The Center for Disease Control warns against heat-related illnesses.

To prevent heat-related illnesses the CDC recommends:

- Drink more fluids (nonalcoholic), regardless of your activity level. Don’t wait until you’re thirsty to drink.
- Don’t drink liquids that contain alcohol or large amounts of sugar—these actually cause you to lose more body fluid. Also, avoid very cold drinks, because they can cause stomach cramps.
- Stay indoors and, if at all possible, stay in an air-conditioned place. If your home does not have air conditioning, go to the shopping mall or public library—even a few hours spent in air conditioning can help your body stay cooler when you go back into the heat.
- Electric fans may provide comfort, but when the temperature is in the high 90s, fans will not prevent heat-related illness. Taking a cool shower or bath, or moving to an air-conditioned place is a much better way to cool off.
- Wear lightweight, light-colored, loose-fitting clothing.
- NEVER leave anyone in a closed, parked vehicle.
- Although anyone at any time can suffer from heat-related illness, some people are at greater risk than others. Check regularly on infants and young children, people aged 65 or older, people who have a mental illness and those who are physically ill, especially with heart disease or high blood pressure.
- Visit adults at risk at least twice a day and closely watch them for signs of heat exhaustion or heat stroke. Infants and young children, of course, need much more frequent watching.

Temperatures aren’t expected to reach extreme temperatures in the coming weeks. However, the drought and previous extreme temperatures are still expected to effect communities.

For more information or if you have questions about the burn ban, contact the Estill County Fire Department at 606-723-2661.

POLICE BEATS

Irvine Police Department

6-29 Justin Roberts, 23, of Ann Street, was arrested after he attempted to steal from his father, Ronald Roberts, which violated his EPO. He was arrested at Wisemantown Grocery. He gave officers consent to search his vehicle. Police found a needle on the passenger side floor and a soda can with a pill on it. Roberts said the pill was a 15 mg oxycodone, a narcotic. Roberts is being charged with violation of Kentucky EPO/DVO, first degree possession of a controlled substance and possession of drug paraphernalia. Bond is set at $2,500 cash.

6-28 Charles Willis, 58, of High Street, was arrested after he assaulted his wife, Diane Willis, and threatened to shoot her in the head. While in an altercation with his wife, Willis smacked her in the face and grabbed her by the throat. He then placed a .380-caliber pistol to her head and threatened to kill her. A seven-year-old was also present in the home at the time of the incident. Diana Willis broke free and ran to a neighbor’s home to call for help. Charles Willis admitted to all of the events and threatened to kill his wife in presence of Ravenna Police Chief Ken White. The altercation was over money. Charles Willis is being charged with fourth-degree assault, third-degree terroristic threatening and first-degree wanton endangerment. Bond is set at $15,000 cash.

Estill County Sheriff’s Office

6-30 Kevin Tipton, 54, of Raintree Court, was arrested after he sent a text message threatening the life of Judge Trude. A witness said she saw Tipton sitting outside of Trude’s home. Tipton also sent several threatening text messages to his ex-wife, Amber Tipton, her mother and her sister. Tipton is being charged with retaliating against participant in legal process, third degree terroristic threatening and second degree stalking. Bond is set at $500 cash.

“No one was more surprised than me when my summer and winter electric bills dropped by half...”

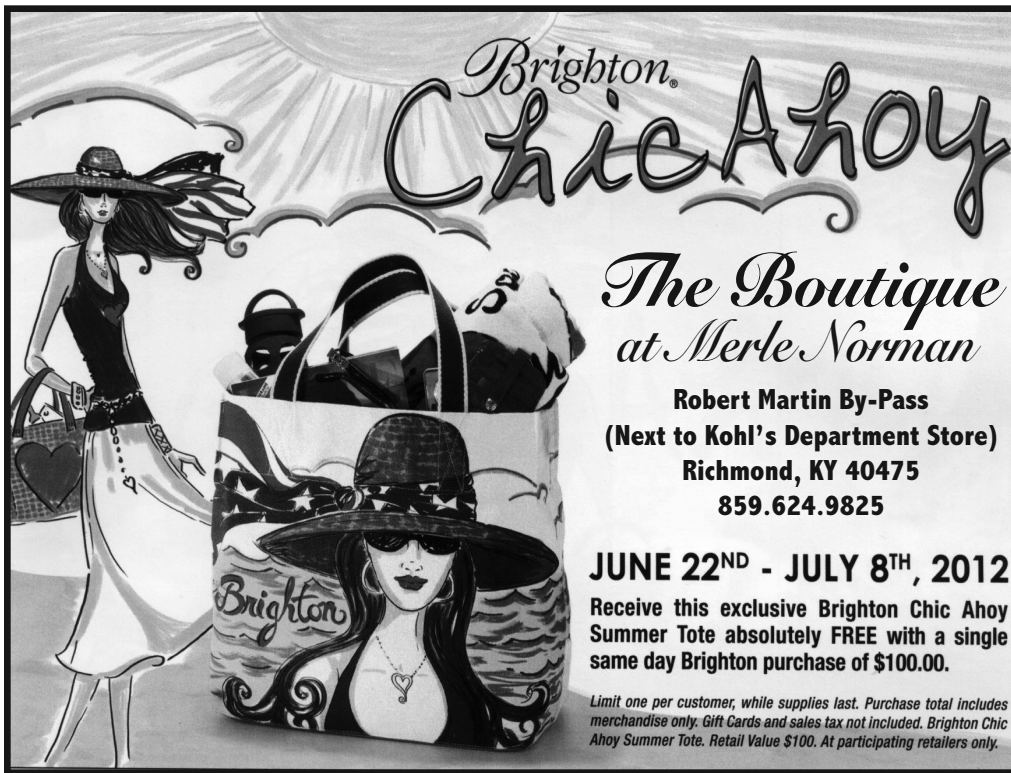

Carson Smith of Clay County was tired of paying what he knew were too-high electric bills and by making his home more energy efficient, he cut those bills nearly in half!

“When I could look around the frame of my back door and literally see outside I knew I was paying a lot of unnecessary dollars trying to heat my backyard,” said Smith. “I knew I was bound to be losing a lot of my cool air in the summertime, too. That’s why I decided to call Jackson Energy.”

Clarification

In the June 28 issue of the Citizen Voice & Times a police beat incorrectly stated that on June 23 James Keeney was in a vehicle accident on Crooked Creek Road. Keeney was, in fact, not the driver of the vehicle and was not in the vehicle at the time of the accident. Keeney is the owner of the vehicle and said he has no knowledge at the time of who was driving the vehicle when it was involved in the wreck. Keeney arrived on the scene after the Estill County Sheriff’s Office making it clear that he was not involved in the wreck in any way.

Man threatens to beat witness with artificial leg

By WHITNEY LEGGETT

A man is now facing additional charges after threatening a witness in a legal proceeding.
Danny Bledsoe, 46, of Laurel Street, was arrested and served three Estill County District Court warrants last week.
Bledsoe allegedly cashed a forged check for $50 that belonged to Ernest Bledsoe.
An employee at Irvine Stop & Shop, where the check was cashed, identified Danny Bledsoe as the one who cashed the check.
He was initially charged with theft by deception and second degree possession of a forged instrument.
A third warrant was issued following an incident in which Danny Bledsoe threatened a witness in the case.

According to the warrant of arrest, Irvine Division of Police Officer Adrian McKinney said that on June 18, Bledsoe “unlawfully intimidated Mark Barnes who is a witness in a legal proceeding.”
Bledsoe allegedly threatened to remove Barnes’ artificial leg from his body.
The warrant states Bledsoe told Barnes he would “beat his brains out,” with the artificial leg if he did not recant his statement in the case.
McKinney also reported that Bledsoe said no one at a particular home on Plum Street was safe.
Bledsoe was arrested and charged with receiving stolen property under $500, intimidating a participant in a legal process, theft by deception and second degree criminal possession of a forged instrument.

ROBBERY

A neighbor said she heard a lot of noise coming from the residence and came over to see what was going on. She said when she opened the front door, she saw Mansfield on top of Kathy Parsons hitting her in the face. When she went to help, she said Mansfield punched her in the face.
She said he then pulled out his gun and pointed it at everyone. She left the residence and called 911.
Mansfield said he went to the residence to confront Danny Parsons about a gun that his father sold Parsons. He claimed Parsons did not pay for the gun and said that’s when the altercation began.
Mansfield said he then left the residence to retrieve his own handgun and came back. When he could not open the door, he said he kicked it in and then began to assault him.
Mansfield then said he went over to ask about some Xanax pills that had been stolen.

Farthing said Mansfield was intoxicated and reported he was foaming from the mouth and had glassy eyes.
He said he had taken Ritalin and Xanax. Farthing said his statements kept changing and he could not make sense of his train of thought.
Mansfield’s father was on the scene as well, but would not give a statement.
He told officers he told his son not to worry about the gun and that Parsons would pay for it.
Danny Parsons was severely injured during the altercation and had to be flown to University of Kentucky Hospital in Lexington.
He was on oxygen at the time of the robbery and, due to his health issues, he could not provide a statement at this time.
Kathy Parsons said Mansfield attempted to steal their television while in the home. The plug was damaged and the screen was broken during the altercation.
Mansfield is being charged with first-degree robbery, a Class B felony, and public intoxication. Bond is set at $25,000 cash.

Gould said the decision to not replace the positions was part of the health department’s “fiscal responsibility” to maintain their budget.
“We’re just trying to keep the budget,” Gould said. “It’s been tough on all of us.”

Gould said the department also has a janitor retiring this year, but is going to look into a janitorial service rather than hiring someone else.
“It’s really no layoffs to it,” Gould said. “It’s more when people go it’s just not replacing them.”
Gould said he considers the department privileged to not have any layoffs.
“I feel fortunate that we have a good enough budget to keep everybody in working here,” Gould said. “We’ve not had to hire anybody part-time or anything.”

OPINION

No debate necessary over the "right to die"

I had never heard the term “right to die,” before I read that a group of people who support the cause have been indicted in Minnesota.

A court case began this week that sparked from an appar-ent suicide.

Members of the online group Final Exit Network have been indicted on 17 counts for assisting in the suicide.

Members of the group helped 57-year-old Doreen Dunn take her own life in 2007.

The goal of the group is to provide advice to those seeking to end their own life.

The whole idea of the “right to die” had my head spinning.

I felt like I should instantly take a side on the issue and I found it difficult. I imagine many of my readers have already decided what side of the argument they stand firmly on just from the introduction to this column.

WHITNEY LEGGETT
CV&T News Editor

I found that my personal values and my professional values conflicted in this situation.

Doreen Dunn was found dead on her couch, where spent a lot of time because of an illness, by her husband. She sought assistance in taking her own life from the group.

Members of the non-profit group have issued statements about the case and stand by their motives saying they have not broken the law and are simply in the business of being caring of others.

Judy Snyderman of the Final Exit Network told CBS reporters, “We’ve done nothing illegal. All we have done is provide information and a compassionate presence – should the person want our presence.”

My personal beliefs initially forced me to be disgusted by the idea that a group of people would actually assist another person in taking their own life.

For as long as I have had even an inkling of understanding of what suicide was, I have always been told the goal is offer support and help.

I have always believed that when someone is discussing taking their own life, the goal was to help change their mind.

In situations where someone I have known has discussed suicide, I have spent sometimes hours telling them all the things they have to live for.

So, when I heard that there was an organization that did the complete opposite, I was awestruck.

I remember hearing of such organizations and as a kid I was instantly disgusted by it.

But, now, I have to say I can begin to understand what the “right to die” really means.

While my personal and religious beliefs instill a knot in my stomach at the thought of suicide, my professional beliefs allow me to argue that everyone should be able to decide for themselves whether they want to live or die.

I can’t allow my personal beliefs to cloud my logic. If someone has the right to life, then they absolutely should have the right to death.

This is not to say that an outside source should be consulted and should be innocent if they assist.

I still believe that if someone should discuss wanting to take their own life, the listener should feel obligated to tell them how dangerous, permanent and serious a decision of that caliber is.

However, in my opinion, this whole debate boils down to whether an individual should be allowed to take their own life.

It blows my mind that the “right to die” is even a term let alone that it is actually being discussed in a court room and being heard by a judge and jury.

Yes, suicide is a sad and serious aspect of our society.

I firmly believe that the members of Final Exit Network aren’t practicing compassion. Rather, they are praying on mentally and physically fragile individuals for selfish reasons.

Rather than giving advice and encouragement about how to commit suicide, the answer is to give advice and encouragement about to see life as a treasured thing.

Despite all of this, the simple fact is that the “right to die” is one that every individual possesses. Whether they choose to use this right or not, is up to them.

Edmonds reminds citizens of importance of Independence Day

Happy Independence Day! A lot of folks just call this the Fourth of July, but I like to say what it is, what it represents. It’s a celebration of our independence, our freedom from British rule and the beginning of a democracy of the people, for the people – and, most importantly, by the people.

It’s a time to look back on our birth as a nation and honor the brave and visionary founders who waged war for their – and our freedom. The ones who signed their names to a bold Declaration proclaiming that life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness are inalienable rights that should be given to every person.

On Independence Day, we celebrate them and their country – our country. And we continue their work. Now, our work. Just as the first Americans, we still explore, still invent, and still push possibility. And still – just as they did, reate America.

Because America didn’t just happen one hot day in July, in Philadelphia, 236 years ago. It’s still happening today. We too are founders. We carry on their fight. We continue the crusade for an even more balanced equality, an even richer life and a freedom without limits to chase happiness. We cherish and honor the legacy we’ve been handed, and mean to pass on no les, hopefully more, to our kids.

Yet, as much as we have to celebrate, I understand some folks aren’t feeling very festive these days. Rightly so. Times are hard. We’ve been through 10 years of two wars. Unemployment rates stay pain-

By TEDDY EDMONDS
State Rep. D-Jackson

fully high. The economic recovery limps along as we struggle to climb from the lowest depths we’ve seen since the Great Depression.

Things may be tough right now, but these bad times won’t last forever. This isn’t the first rough patch we’ve gone through. It won’t be the last. And it sure won’t be the one that brings us down. Better days are surely coming.

America will prevail, just as she always has, hand in hand with her people. The everyday folks who made her great and continue to build her up. Everyday folks like you. Soldiers. Firefighters. Police officers. Social workers. Teachers. Working moms and working dads who get up every morning, no complaints, and go to their job to pay their bills and feed their kids before giving them a hug goodnight. Neighbors who can always be counted on, one American helping another, shouldering life’s load together. Because Americans don’t back down from challenge. We lock our knees, square our shoulders and face whatever’s coming at us head-on.

So this week, just as we have for more than two hundred years, through wars, droughts, and other calamities, let’s take a moment to commemorate our first and greatest victory: Independence. Freedom. It’s something to celebrate.

Don't forget about the Highway 52 Fifty-Mile Yard Sale happening this weekend, July 6-7, dawn to dusk. It runs from the junction of Highways 52 and 30 in Jackson, along Highway 52 through Lee and Estill Counties to the Madison County line. It's grown in success each year, and with good weather I think that will continue this year. Whether you're selling, looking at something to buy or just wanting to enjoy the whole scene, I think you'll have a great time with your friends and neighbors throughout Breathitt, Lee and Estill counties.

Exposure, college cause writer become more open-minded

Kentucky, as well as the rest of our country, is indeed a melting pot of different cultures. What makes the bluegrass state different from a lot of other states is our misunderstanding of these different cultures.

As most people in Kentucky, I have spent the majority of my life here. So as I grew older, I would overhear people in my community talking negatively about people in our town who, in laymen’s terms, were not “white, straight, Christian folk.”

When I was a child, I did not understand any importance or meaningfulness behind this. Once I reached high school, it occurred to me that a lot of my peers would use some of the same slurs I had heard in my younger days.

Once I arrived at college, I was exposed to just exactly how much of a melting pot our country is. I met several students who were not from this area. Seeing all of this made me want to study up and learn about different religions, cultures and languages.

Since being in college, I have definitely become a more broad-minded individual. That is why I’m still in utter shock and awe when I hear people throwing around remarks geared toward a certain group of people.

Spending the majority of my time in this rural area has made me realize not everybody is as broad-minded. While

By KYLE WOOSLEY
KPA Summer Intern

here, I occasionally overhear people throwing around similar remarks to those I heard as I child. And when I hear it, I try to revert myself back to those childhood days where I pretend not to understand it. To be honest, every time I hear someone use a degrading term to describe someone who is Arabic, black or gay, it sends chills up my spine.

But the bottom line is not everybody is going to be Christian, not everybody is going to be straight and not everybody is going to be white. But you can’t punish them for it. Nobody should be forced to think or feel a certain way just because it’s the “normal” thing to do.

In fact, some of the things that seem “normal” here are considered taboo and strange in other places. But that does not make us weird. It makes us unique. It’s part of our culture and lifestyle, just as much as being Muslim is part of the Middle Eastern lifestyle.

You cannot go through life stereotyping everybody. Not all people who are from the Middle East are Muslims, just like all people from here are not Christians. And, more importantly, not everyone from the Middle East is a terrorist.

Like I said, Kentucky is a melting pot and while you do not have to agree with a person’s sexuality, religion or culture, you do have to accept it. Because it’s not our job to persecute anybody who doesn’t think the way we do. That’s what the holocaust in Europe was all about. And look how many people had to die before that was put to an end.

So, if you’re walking down the street and see someone from a different country, don’t consider them a threat. Consider it an opportunity to open your mind and broaden your knowledge of different cultures.

KSP requests the public be cautious in the heat

The Kentucky State Police, Richmond Post requests that the public be mindful of the dangers associated with leaving children and pets in a vehicle during the summer months. Vehicles left running are an open invitation to vehicle theft or child abduction.
About half of hot-car-related deaths occur when care givers have a change in their normal routine and forget a baby, who is often, left sleeping quietly in a rear-facing car seat in the back seat of the car. While this is the safest place for children to ride, it can be easy for the operator to overlook them. So, prevention might best be accomplished through reminders, especially passive ones. Place your purse, briefcase, or backpack on the floor of the backseat, where you will see the baby when you go to retrieve it. Program your smart phone; watch alarm or computer to remind you to make sure you drop the child off at day care.

The temperature in a vehicle can climb over 19 degrees in as little as 10 minutes. Placing children and pets left in an unattended vehicle in danger of heat stroke which can lead to death. Children who are at a greater risk to heat stroke can succumb to the effects in the time it takes to collect just a few groceries.
“The dangers associated with leaving a child unattended in a parked vehicle can have life threatening consequences. Leaving a child or pet in a vehicle at any time is not safe. There are laws against it,” commented Captain Lisa Rudzinski, Richmond Post Commander, “Prevention is the key. Double and triple check a vehicle before locking the doors. Locking any unattended vehicle can prevent a child from becoming trapped in the trunk while playing.”

Burn Ban guidelines

Due to the extremely hot, humid and dry weather, any outdoor burning and discharge of fireworks throughout Estill County MUST be performed with extreme caution. Please follow these guidelines:

- DO NOT burn any items outside if the wind is blowing.

- Refrain from any outside burning, unless necessary.

- If you must burn, only burn during morning hours while moisture is on the ground. DO NOT burn during the heat of the day.

- Keep fires small. If you have large brush piles that need to be burnt only do this in the winter months.

- ALWAYS have water or an extinguishment source available to prevent any fire from spreading.

- NEVER leave any fire or outdoor heat source unattended.

- Contact the Estill County Fire Department at 606-723-2661 if you MUST burn.

Please remember to use EXTREME CAUTION if using fireworks. Keep an extinguishment source, such as a water hose, buckets of water or a fire extinguisher, available at the site where you will be discharging fireworks.

Please patrol the area the fireworks may land to assure that no "hotspots" remain after the fireworks have been discharged.

Let's all do our part to keep down unnecessary damage to property and homes caused by reckless burning and uncontrolled fires.

LIBRARY NEWS

Estill County Library presents 'The Art of the Quilt: Stitched (Hist) stories'

Quilt enthusiasts and history lovers won't want to miss Dr. Kimberly Allen-Kattus speak on "The Art of the Quilt: Stitched (Hist) stories," presented at Estill County Public Library on July 11, at 3:30 p.m., as part of the Summer Reading program. This discussion will explore quilt making as an art form, examining its history as a uniquely American tradition that from its earliest stages offered an opportunity for its makers, often women, to present both their personal and, at times, public history through a complex interweaving of pictorial and structural narrative.

As a descendent of an Appalachian quilt maker, Dr. Kattus has an ongoing interest in the art, history and the craft of quilt-making, her research being enriched with hands on experience with the technique as she produces many quilts herself. Dr. Kattus is an associate professor of art history at Northern Kentucky University.

The library's Summer Reading program for children, teens and adults, continues until July 20. Upcoming programs include a children's story teller, indoor star lab and a guest speaker from NASA. A complete schedule of events is available at the library. Participation is free and open to anyone with a valid library card. This year prizes include books, gift cards, a Blu-Ray Player and Kindle Touch.

Yankees participate in ‘Field of Dreams’

The Estill County Little League T-ball Yankees took over Whitaker Bank Ballpark Friday night before the Lexington Legends game. The Yankees were selected to participate in the Paul Miller Field of Dreams and Trophy Presentation before the game. Each team member was announced and greeted at home plate by a Legends player, Big L and other mascots as they received their trophy for the 2012 baseball year. Once the trophies were handed out and a group picture was taken the Yankees went to the Legends dugout for autographs and meet the players. During the Field of Dreams each player is recognized on the field during the National Anthem and is paired with a Legends player. The 2012 T-ball Yankees: Garrett Holloway, Alex Beckler, Levi Beckler, Weston Evans, Xander Turner, Brandon Goosey, Preslee Miller, Eli Graves, JR McCoy, Elijah Norton, Chase Hobbs, Lilli Holton, Coach Brandon Holloway, Asst. Coach Jeff Beckler, Asst. Coach David Adams. Special Guest for the Field of Dreams and trophy Presentation Mighty Mites Yankees Gavin Holloway and Parker Maybrier.

Chandler named MVP of Congressional baseball game

Congressman Ben Chandler was named co-MVP of the 51st Annual CQ Roll Call Congressional Baseball Game. On a hot evening at Nationals Park, the Democrats defeated the Republicans 18-5 behind the pitching strength of Chandler's co-MVP, Rep. Cedric Richmond (D-LA). The game set a new record and raised about $250,000 for local charities.

Proudly wearing a uniform from Berea College, Congressman Chandler started at shortstop and played all seven innings of the game. He finished the night with three hits, a walk, three stolen bases, four runs batted in (RBI) and one perfectly placed bunt.

“On one of the most politically charged days in recent memory, it was great to end the day with a bit of bipartisan fun for a good cause,” said Chandler.

Kentucky was well-represented at the game, as Congressman John Yarmuth and Senator Rand Paul also played for the Democrats and Republicans respectively. Chandler threw out Senator Paul on a close play at first base in the first inning.

Order of the Eastern Star presents...

Dinner and a show

Order of The Eastern Star presented a pantomime show Friday evening at the Lodge Hall on Broadway in Irvine.

Dinner was served at 6 p.m. before the show began. The pantomime show consisted of various comedy players acting out and lip synching songs by famous artists.

Shania Twain, Allan Jackson, Patsy Cline, Dolly Parton, Johnny Cash, June Carter, Sonny and Cher were just among some of the acts performed by the group.

Bobby Noland, coordinator of the event, said she was pleased with the community turnout for the show.

"We thought we was going to have a pretty good turnout and it happened," Noland said. "We were really pleased with the turnout and everything."

The last event held by Order of the Eastern Star was a murder mystery dinner last month and had about 100 people in attendance. But Noland is unsure of when the next event will be held.

"We may have another one in the fall, you never know," Noland said.

Noland said she believes everybody enjoyed themselves and appreciates all the community support for their events.

"We just want to thank everyone for coming and having a good time," Noland said. "We really appreciate it."

From the NICU to CICU, our baby is home!

By LISA BICKNELL
CV&T Staff Writer

Sitting in Hannah and Eric's living room, I listen to the home ventilator as it "breathes" with a rhythmic hiss.

Occasionally, an alarm beeps if Clay kicks the pulse oximeter probe off his little foot. That pulse ox constantly monitors the oxygen level of his blood and his heart rate.

A plastic pouch hangs from a tall shiny steel pole by the crib and drips a steady stream of momma's milk through a G-tube directly into the baby's tummy.

A small humidifier sits on a shelf by the crib, moisturizing the air that Clay breathes through the ventilator.

At noon and 6 p.m., around the clock, several meds and breathing treatments will be administered.

Welcome to the CICU, folks, or Clay's Intensive Care Unit, where Mommy and Daddy are now his primary care nurses, and nanas, papas, aunts, uncles and cousins are learning to help out with the challenging but exciting and delightful, task of caring for baby Clay at home.

Yes, I said "HOME!"

Eight months and two days after his birth, 270 days to be exact, Clay is now sleeping in his own bed.

While Clay's ICU may look intimidating to first-time visitors, the presence of medical equipment is soon overlooked when Clay beams a cute wide grin.

I was going to say "toothless grin" but he's just cut his first two teeth.

The little guy has such a happy spirit about him and is nearly always in a playful mood. He's handled all of the past week's changes like a true champ.

Changes like...

...leaving behind his first home in Nursery 8 at the UK Children's Hospital.

...saying good-bye to the nurses who became family to him and the rest of us.

...experiencing his first car ride.

...being introduced, a few at a time, to a whole new bunch of family and friends, even some "little people" who weren't allowed into the hospital NICU.

...taking a first stroll outside to check out the sky, the moon and the trees.

...breathing fresh country air.

...smelling food cooking in the kitchen.

I told myself I wouldn't be one of those grandparents who has to see their grandbaby every day, but for one reason or another, I've found an excuse to "help out" nearly every day since Clay's been home.

I just can't stop smiling about the fact that our little dumpling is just up the road a few miles—so much closer than a drive to Lexington!

I'm tickled to report that, while Clay is still ventilator dependent, he is doing great.

We're all doing great, actually, and I can't tell you how thankful we are to have our boy home. I know that many of you have been praying for this day. Thank you.

Well, I'd better get back to "helping out" now. I think Clay needs Nana to read him another storybook.

READER'S RECIPES

Strawberry-Stuffed Muffins

Wanda Lynch, Ravenna

These look especially cute made as mini muffins, but you can also make them in standard muffin tins. If you make the larger muffins, increase the baking time to 12 to 15 minutes and place 2 strawberry halves on each unbaked muffin.

2 cups unbleached all-purpose flour
1 cup granulated sugar
1 Tbsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. salt
3 eggs, lightly beaten
1 cup whole milk
2 Tbsp. unsalted butter, melted
1/2 tsp. pure vanilla extract
12 medium strawberries, halved
1/2 cup confectioners' sugar
2 tsp. fresh lemon juice

Preheat oven to 400 degree. Line a 24-cup mini-muffin tin with paper liners. In a large bowl, whisk together flour, granulated sugar, baking powder, and salt. In a large measuring cup, whisk together eggs, milk, butter, and vanilla. Add milk mixture to flour mixture and stir just until well blended. Scoop batter into prepared muffin cups, filling each 2/3 full. Top each with a strawberry half. Bake muffins until tops are golden and a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean, 10 to 12 minutes. Cool in pan for 10 minutes before glazing. In a small bowl, mix confectioners' sugar with lemon juice and stir until smooth. Drizzle muffins with glaze and allow to cool completely. Makes 24 mini muffins.

Fudge Brownies

Anita Holliman, Irvine

1 3/4 cups brown sugar, firmly packed
1/2 cup plus 2 Tbsp. butter

3 1/2 oz. unsweetened chocolate, broken into pieces
2 eggs, beaten
1 cup plus 2 Tbsp. all-purpose flour
1 1/2 tsp. baking soda
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 cup pecans, chopped
Preheat oven to 325 degrees. Lightly grease an 8-inch square baking pan. Line the base with parchment paper using a greased brush to smooth into place. Place the brown sugar, butter and chocolate in large heavy base sauce pan. Cook over low heat, stirring occasionally until the mixture is smooth. Remove from heat and let cool. Beat eggs into chocolate mixture. Stir the flour, baking powder and salt into the pot and gently fold into the mixture using a spoon. Stir in pecans. Smooth the batter into the prepared baking pan and level the surface. Bake until a toothpick inserted in the center comes out clean; about 30 minutes. Remove from oven and let cool in pan. Turn out onto a flat surface and peel off paper. Cut brownies into 16 squares and serve.

Home Style Apple Pie

Anita Holliman, Irvine

1 pkg. (15 oz.) refrigerated pie crust
2 1/2 lbs. Granny Smith apples, peeled, cored and sliced thinly.

1 cup firmly packed dark brown sugar
2 Tbsp. all-purpose flour
1 Tbsp. apple pie spice
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 cup (1/2 stick) butter, cut into small pieces
1 1/2 Tbsp. milk

1 Tbsp. granulated sugar
Preheat oven to 400 degrees. Grease a deep 9-inch pie plate. Line the pie plate with one of the pie crusts and set aside. Combine the apples, brown sugar, flour, apple spice and salt in a large bowl. Toss the apples to coat. Spoon the apple mixture into the prepared pie plate. Dot the top of the mixture with butter. Brush the edge of pie crust with water. Lay the remaining pie crust over the filling in the pie plate. Trim off any excess with a knife. Press the edges together and pinch or (flute) to seal. Brush the top of the pie with milk. Cut slits in the center of the pie with a sharp knife. Sprinkle the top of the pie with granulated sugar. Place the pie on a baking sheet. Bake until the crust is golden brown, 40 to 45 minutes. Serve hot with a dip of vanilla ice cream and mint leaves for decoration.

Peanut Butter Cookies

Heather Young, Ravenna

1 cup sugar
1 cup peanut butter
1 egg
1 tsp. vanilla

Mix ingredients together, roll into 1-inch balls, place onto ungreased baking sheet. Bake at 4 to 10 minutes at 325 degrees or until golden brown.

Home canning made easy

By: Grace Viall Gray

(The following article was taken from The Irvine Times 1929. Methods of canning have changed over the years.)

9 Canning Points

1. Have all equipment in readiness before canning has started.
2. Pack products in jars or cans that will seal air tight. Spoilage in canned foods is frequently due to imperfect containers.
3. Pressure cookers are helpful in the canning of meat and all non-acid vegetables. The high pressure obtainable kills all spores, thus assuring perfect sterilization. Pressure cookers also save time and fuel.
4. If you live in the South, or in very high altitudes, or in the west coast states, get the time-tables for canning recommended by your state college. In these sections it is recommended not to use hot water for the canning of vegetables and meats but the pressure cooker.
5. For exhibit and contest purposes always use glass jars.
6. Empty space in a jar will not lessen the keeping qualities of the food, but it detracts from the appearance and is a waste of jar space. However, if a glass jar has lost liquid during processing, do not open to refill.
7. To can fruit juices pasteurize for from 25 to 30 minutes at 160 to 170 degrees. Boiling fruit juices destroys the flavor.
8. Canning does not change poor products into good products so use good products to put into jars. And do not spoil good products by half-way methods of canning. Use the quickest, safest, and most efficient method of canning, which is the pressure cooker method.
9. Before storing canned products away in a cool, dry, airy place for winter use, keep the jars under observation at room temperature for at least one week.

ENCOURAGING WORD: THE SOLID FOUNDATION

Howard Coop

Guest Columnist

work of the 56 Founding Fathers who risked their lives, their fortunes, and their sacred honor to prepare and sign the Declaration of Independence.

The Declaration of Independence is a short document with long and lasting effects. That document broke relations between Great Britain and the thirteen original American colonies and became, as Abraham Lincoln said at Gettysburg, the foundation of "a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal."

Independence Day, always celebrated on July 4, should be a significant day for every loyal citizen of the United States of America. Since 1776, the day has been enthusiastically celebrated throughout this land with flourishes of oratory, big parades, and dazzling displays of fireworks. This celebrating is the response of grateful citizens who appreciate the

Beyond the oratory, the parades, and the fireworks, there is another, and maybe, a more meaningful way to experience the significance of Independence Day. This special day can, and should, be observed with a period of quiet reflection upon the Declaration of Independence and its significance. This noble document, 236 years old, is short; it contains a mere 1,346 word that can be read in a few minutes. But those powerful words say much to those who take the time to read and think about them.

This historic document affirms that all persons "are created equal." Therefore, no one has a superior rank. Everyone is "endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights," and "Governments are instituted among men" to secure these rights. These governments derive "their just powers from the consent of the governed." When "any Form of government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or abolish it, and to institute a new Government." Then, there is an underlying principle: "Prudence, indeed, will dictate, that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes."

These basic principles are the solid foundation of our country. So may it ever be.

Thank You

Our sincere thanks to everyone that helped to make the Blue-Gold Alumni Reunion a success. Thanks to all the alumni from Estill and Irvine High who brought food, supported the Alumni Scholarship or just stopped by to see old friends. We appreciate it all!!

Thanks to the Estill County Board of Education for the use of Old Estill High and the current Estill County High School. Thanks to our Sock Hop Band, Miller Dooley. Thanks to Ale 8-1 for donating drinks for both events. Thanks to Sheila Nice, Ray Harold and Freda Hardy and for the lovely Memorial Service. Thanks to Pepper Hardy for helping with our auction for the Alumni Scholarship. Thanks to Twin Cedar Embroidery for making our awesome T-Shirts. Thanks to the Twin City Kruzers showing us their special cars.

A sincere thanks to our local businesses that supported our events, These are Hardy Oil, Hardy Gas, Bunt Gross, and Carhartts.

A big thanks to our local public relations helpers, the Estill Tribune, Citizen's Voice and Times and Irvine Community Television for making sure that we got the word out to the community.

Thanks to those nameless people who brought those unexpected donations of food, drinks and money that magically appeared on the day of the reunion that enable us to keep this annual event free, delicious and fun.

A special thanks to Freda Watson for making her lovely Irvine High quilt. Thanks to Mary Durbin Singleton and our friends from Irvine High the quilt raised over $200 for the 2013 Alumni Scholarship. Our 2012 recipients were Mason Short and Alicia Yeager with a $500 scholarship each.

We think every year maybe this will be the last reunion but then somebody says, I guess that we can try it again. My special thanks to the Blue-Gold Reunion Committee that still has faith that maybe we can try it again, June 15th 2013.

Sincerely,
Sara Noland,
Chairperson of Blue-Gold Reunion Committee

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that Kentucky Utilities Company seeks approval by the Public Service Commission, Frankfort, Kentucky of an adjustment of electric rates and charges proposed to become effective on and after August 1, 2012, subject to the “Stay-Out” Commitment in Article I.1.1 of the Settlement Agreement approved in September 30, 2010 Public Service Commission Order in Case No. 2010-00204, under which the change in rates may be filed with the Public Service Commission during 2012, but not take effect before January 1, 2013.

and
Private Outdoor Lighting - Rate P.O.LT.

Street Lighting Service (Rate ST.LT. – Sheet No. 35) and Private Outdoor Lighting Service (Rate P.O.LT. – Sheet No. 36) are being reorganized into two rate schedules. The first schedule will be named Lighting Services (Rate LS) and will be a consolidation of lighting fixtures currently offered. The second schedule will be named Restricted Lighting Service (Rate RLS) and will be a consolidation of lighting fixtures that are in service but no longer available for new or replacement installations. The current and proposed rates are presented below based on the lights to be included in Rate LS and Rate RLS. The lights proposed to be contained in the specific schedule are shown in bold type with the current light and rate sheet shown below the proposed light.

Traffic Energy Service Rate TE
	Current	Proposed
Basic Service Charge per Month:	$3.14	$3.25
Energy Charge per kWh:	$0.07182	$0.07614

Dark Sky Friendly Rate DSK
Current Rate
DSK Lantern	4,000	.050	$21.31
DSK Lantern	9,500	.100	$22.22
Proposed Rate
This rate schedule is proposed to be included in Lighting Service Rate LS.

Cable Television Attachment Charges – Rate CTAC
	Current	Proposed
Attachment Charge per year for each attachment to pole:	$5.40	$10.01

Curtable Service Rider 10 – Rider CSR10
	Current (per kW)	Proposed (Per kVA)
Monthly Demand Credit:
Primary	($5.50)	($2.80)
Transmission	($5.40)	($2.75)
Non-Compliance Charge:	$16.00	$16.00
Proposed Contract Option: Removes restriction that KU may only use physical curtailment during system reliability events. Also changes contract options' demand from a 15-minute demand basis to the one the customer's standard rate schedule uses.

Curtable Service Rider 30 – Rider CSR30
	Current (per kW)	Proposed (Per kVA)
Monthly Demand Credit per kW:
Primary	($4.40)	($2.30)
Transmission	($4.30)	($2.25)
Non-Compliance Charge per kW:	$16.00	$16.00
Proposed Contract Option: Removes restriction that KU may only use physical curtailment during system reliability events. Also changes contract options' demand from a 15-minute demand basis to the one the customer's standard rate schedule uses.

Load Reduction Incentive Rider – Rider LRI
Current Rate	Up to $0.30 per kWh
Proposed Rate	This rate schedule is proposed to be eliminated.

Standard Rider for Excess Facilities – Rider EF
Current Rate
Customer shall pay for excess facilities by:
Monthly Charge for Leased Facilities:	1.54%
Monthly Charge for Facilities Supported
By a One-Time CIAC Payment:	0.74%

Proposed Rate
No adjustment in the monthly charge for a replacement of facilities will be made during the initial five (5) year term of contract.
Customer shall pay for excess facilities by:
(a) Making a monthly Excess Facilities charge payment equal to the installed cost of the excess facilities times the following percentage:
Percentage with No Contribution-in-Aid-of-Construction	1.28%
(b) Making a one-time Contribution-in-Aid-of-Construction equal to the installed cost of the excess facilities plus a monthly Excess Facilities Charge payment equal to the installed cost of the excess facilities times the following percentage:
Percentage with Contribution-in-Aid-of-Construction	0.49%

Standard Rider for Redundant Capacity Charge – Rider RC
	Current (per kW)	Proposed (Per kVA)
Capacity Reservation Charge per Month:
Secondary Distribution	$0.85	$1.55
Primary Distribution	$0.68	$0.99

Standard Rider for Supplemental or Standby Service – Rider SS
	Current (per kW)	Proposed (Per kVA)
Contract Demand per month:
Secondary	$6.54	$12.91
Primary	$6.17	$12.35
Transmission	$5.99	$11.17

Availability of Service: Text addition clarifies that KU has no obligation to supply non-firm service to a customer-generator unless the customer seeks supplemental or standby service under Rider SS. This requirement does not apply to Net Metering Service (Rider NMS).

Temporary and/or Seasonal Electric Service Rider TS
Availability of Service:	Text change clarifies that service is available when it is not necessary for KU to install permanent facilities.
Conditions:	Customer will pay for non-salvageable materials plus a monthly charge for the salvageable equipment at the Percentage With No Contribution in-Aid-of-Construction specified on the Excess Facilities Rider.

Real-Time Pricing Rider RTP
Current Rate:	Billing under this Rider is formulaic.
Proposed Rate:	This rate schedule is proposed to be eliminated.

Standard Rate for Low Emission Vehicle Service – Rate LEV
	Current	Proposed
Basic Service Charge per Month:	$8.50	$13.00
Energy Charge per kWh:
Off-Peak Hours	$0.04904	$ 0.05078
Intermediate Hours	$0.07005	$ 0.07254
Peak Hours	$0.13315	$ 0.13788

Availability of Service: Clarifies that rate is available to customers eligible for Rate RS or GS where the GS service is used in conjunction with an RS service to provide service to a detached garage and energy usage is no more than 300 kWh per month.

Meter Test Charge
Current Rate	$60.00
Proposed Rate	$75.00

Disconnecting and Reconnecting Service Charge
Current Rate	$25.00
Proposed Rate	$28.00

Meter Pulse Charge
Current Rate:	$9.00 per month per installed set of pulse-generating equipment
Proposed Rate:	$15.00 per month per installed set of pulse-generating equipment

Customer Deposits
Kentucky Utilities Company is proposing no change to the required Customer Deposit for residential electric customers served under Residential Rate RS from the current amount of $135.00 (0% increase), and the required Customer Deposit for general service customers served under General Service Rate GS from the current amount of $220.00 (0% increase). Text change states when Rate GS deposit may be waived in conjunction with taking service under Rate RS.

Kentucky Utilities Company proposes to change the text of the following electric tariffs: General Service Rate GS, All Electric School Rate AES, Power Service Rate PS, Time-of-Day Secondary Service Rate TODS, Time-of-Day Primary Service Rate TODP, Retail Transmission Service Rate RTS, Fluctuating Load Service Rate FLS, Street Lighting Service Rate ST.LT, Private Outdoor Lighting Rate P.O.LT, Cable Television Attachment Charges Rate CTAC, Curtable Service Rider CSR10, Curtable Service Rider CSR30, Excess Facilities Rider EF, Redundant Capacity Rider RC, Supplemental/Standby Service Rider SS, Rider IL for Intermittent Loads, Temporary/Seasonal Service Rider TS, Large Green Energy Rider LGE, Low Emission Vehicle Service Rate LEV, Fuel Adjustment Clause FAC, Demand Side Management Cost Recovery Mechanism DSM, Environmental Cost Recovery Surcharge ECR, and the Terms and Conditions.

Changes to the Terms and Conditions include proposed clarifications on terms and conditions for determining customer rate assignments, as well as when standby or supplemental service must be purchased if customer desires non-firm service.

Although KU is not proposing to change the text of its Fuel Adjustment Clause ("FAC"), other than the correction of a minor typographical error in Paragraph (3), it is proposing to recover certain costs through the FAC to ensure that the correct amounts are collected through base rates and the FAC.

Complete copies of the proposed tariffs containing text changes and proposed rates may be obtained by contacting Lonnie E. Bellar, Kentucky Utilities Company at 220 West Main Street, Louisville, Kentucky, 502-627-4830, or visiting Kentucky Utilities Company's website at www.lge-ku.com.

The foregoing rates reflect a proposed annual increase in revenues of approximately 6.5% to Kentucky Utilities Company.

The estimated amount of the annual change and the average monthly bill to which the proposed electric rates will apply for each electric customer class is as follows:

Electric Rate Class	Annual $ Increase	Annual % Increase	Mthly Bill $ Increase	Mthly Bill % Increase
Residential	$37,381,886	8.03%	$ 7.41	8.03%
General Service	$ 9,061,201	4.97%	$ 9.20	4.97%
All Electric School	$ 635,467	5.81%	$ 82.81	5.81%
Power Service	$ 6,849,989	2.53%	$ 96.29	2.53%
TODS (Secondary)	$ 1,907,198	6.59%	$ 1,160.80	6.59%
TODP (Primary)	$12,380,611	6.62%	$ 6,159.51	6.62%
Retail Transmission	$ 5,128,398	6.50%	$ 11,982.24	6.50%
Fluctuating Load	$ 1,417,956	6.25%	$118,163.01	6.25%
Outdoor Lights	$ 1,267,776	5.41%	$ 0.62	5.41%
Lighting Energy	$ 124	5.42%	$ 11.27	5.42%
Traffic Energy	$ 6,388	5.40%	$ 0.79	5.40%
CTAC	$ 681,722	85.37%	N/A	N/A

The rates contained in this notice are the rates proposed by Kentucky Utilities Company; however, the Public Service Commission may order rates to be charged that differ from the proposed rates contained in this notice.

Notice is further given that any corporation, association, body politic or person with a substantial interest in the matter may by written request, within thirty (30) days after publication of the notice of the proposed rate changes, request to intervene. The motion shall be submitted to the Public Service Commission, 211 Sower Boulevard, P. O. Box 615, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601, and shall set forth the grounds for the request, including the status and interest of the party. Intervention may be granted beyond the thirty (30) day period for good cause shown. Any person who has been granted intervention may obtain copies of the application and any other filing made by the utility by contacting Lonnie E. Bellar, Vice President – State Regulation and Rates, Kentucky Utilities Company, c/o LG&E and KU Energy LLC, 220 West Main Street, Louisville, Kentucky, 502-627-4830.

A copy of the application and testimony shall be available for public inspection at the office of Kentucky Utilities Company, 100 Quality Street, Lexington, Kentucky, or the Public Service Commission, 211 Sower Boulevard, Frankfort, Kentucky.

A copy of this Notice and the proposed tariff, once filed, shall also be available for public inspection on Kentucky Utilities Company's website at www.lge-ku.com.
